November 1st – All Saints

The Feast Day was instituted to honour all the saints, known and unknown, and, according to Urban IV (c.1195-1264), to make up for any deficiencies in the faithful's celebration of saints' feast days during the year.

In the early days the Christians were accustomed to solemnize the anniversary of a martyr's death for Christ at the place of martyrdom. In the persecution of Diocletian the number of martyrs became so great that a separate day could not be assigned to each. But the Church, feeling that every martyr should be venerated, appointed a common day for all. Gregory IV (827-844) extended the celebration on 1 November to the entire Church. The vigil, known as 'Hallowe'en' seems to have been held as early as the feast itself. (Parish Bulletin Notes, www.cathnews.com)
