Ce film rend bien vivante l'histoire de Karol Wojtyla, y compris ses luttes personnelles durant l'occupation de la Pologne par les Nazis. Il traite aussi de ses relations avec les Russes, de son élection comme pape à l'âge de 59 ans. Le film sera projeté du 4 au 10 avril au Théâtre Port à 19h15 chaque soir. Il y aura une matinée le lundi 7 avril à 14h. Mgr Marcel Damphousse présentera le film le soir d'ouverture, à 19h00.

CORNWALL: Bishop Pix Movie Series - Pope John Paul II: On April 27th, Pope Francis will preside at the canonization of Blessed John Paul II and Blessed John XXIII. To commemorate this historic event, we are screening Pope John Paul II. This movie, starring Oscar winner John Voigt and Oscar nominee James Cromwell, brings the amazing story of Karol Wojtyla up close and personal, from his struggles in Nazi-occupied Poland to his dealings with Russians, to his election, at the age of 58, as the first non-Italian pope in 455 years. The movie will be screened from April 4th to 10th at the Port Theatre (132 Montreal Road) beginning at 7:15pm each evening with a special Monday Matinée on April 7th. Qui sont les Catholiques dynamiques?

« Serions-nous des aveugles, nous aussi? » Le catholique dynamique sait que Jésus est venu pour guérir les aveugles que nous sommes. Il est venu nous apprendre à voir, non pas à partir des lois des hommes mais, à partir du regard même de Dieu. Et pour ce faire, le catholique dynamique a à cœur de toujours mieux connaître la Parole, de mieux la comprendre pour mieux en vivre.

Who are the Dynamic Catholics?

"Would we be blind men, us too?" The dynamic Catholic knows that Jesus came to cure the blind men that we are. He came to teach us how to see, not starting from the laws of men but from the way God looks at us. And in order to do that, the dynamic Catholic desires to better know the Word of God, to better understand it, in order to better live it.
